Do not buy a television from Blinq

Reviewed in the United States on August 31, 2019

The television will work fine until the end of the warranty and then one day the screen starts blinking on and off, and the reccomended fix does not work. Its an ploy to get an $150 service call on a tv that cost less than that. Im just going throw this out and buy a new tv again after maybe 9 months. It will not be a Vizio or from Blinq.com. Im not sure what has happened to the quality of Vizio tvs but they have lost a

Too smart for me

Reviewed in the United States on December 29, 2018

This TV is not for this aged tech imbecile. Too many challenges and too smart to do what I need it to do, easily. Must return and pay more for a dumber TV. A plain old monitor with a headphone jack and my fire stick will be fine.

great size for my bathroom

Reviewed in the United States on September 3, 2019

Verified Purchase

I recently remodeled my guest bathroom and added a television. I am very happy with the size and my house guest mentioned how lovely it was to have a television in the bathroom not only for watching the news when getting ready for the day but also to watching television while soaking in the tub. It was a great buy; I'm thinking about purchasing another one for my laundry room.

Value for price is fine

Reviewed in the United States on May 23, 2020

This tv has an absolutely wonderful picture. Score 5 stars. The remote is another story as it is far from being intuitive. I've had it a month and still get it locked up searching my WiFi, or scanning channels when they're already scanned. I use antenna for network and Prime video so shouldn't be brain surgery. Also this uses a default aspect ratio which is inappropriate for certain channels resulting in some programs with incredibly tall thin characters.

Closed captioning a plus

Reviewed in Canada on April 8, 2019

Verified Purchase

Bought for my Mom who is severely hearing impaired. This is an admirable little smart TV that is closed captioned for her.

It was not for its smart capabilities that it was purchased but it is definitely well equipped/ I cannot comment on its gaming features as not a gamer. Picture quality as good as its larger counterparts
